- State authority; or
- a person who has legal or equitable interest in the land, or the timber on the land. For example, a person holding a mortgage over the land, timber rights, leases the land or has a life interest or is a beneficiary under a Trust.

Name of local authority or State authority or person with a legal or equitable interest in the land, or the timber on the land.

Under the Forest Practices Act 1985 Section 7 (2) a 'prescribed persons' as per Section 7 (4) (a), (b) or (c), can object to the application on grounds under Section 8 (2) (a), (b), (c), (d) or (e).

I wish to object on the following grounds;

- the application has not been made in good faith and honestly,
- the land is not suitable for declaration as a private timber reserve,
- a person who has a legal or equitable interest in the land, or timber on the land, would be disadvantaged of the application was granted,
- by the virtue of the operation of any Act, the owner of the land is prohibited from establishing forest, or growing or harvesting timber , on the land,
- it would not be in the public interest to grant the application.

Please tick appropriate box or boxes.

Please submit, as an attachment, any material in support of your objection.

Please complete the following declaration

I understand that I must lodge this objection with Private Forests Tasmania, and the applicant, before the objection period expires.

I declare that I am a person authorised to lodge this objection.
