

Application to declare land as a private timber reserve Part A

Office Use
State Number

Requirements

A separate application is required for each different ownership, even though the land may be managed as one unit. For example, A. Smith, AB Smith, AB & CD Smith, A Smith & Co, or A Smith & Company Pty Ltd are all different titles and require separate applications.

Generally, minimum area per application is five (5) hectares or 12 acres. In certain situations, applications for areas less than 5 hectares can be accepted. Please consult Private Forests Tasmania for advice.

An application to declare land as a Private Timber Reserve is in two parts.

Part A (this form) must be completed by the landowner. Part B needs to be completed by a person authorised by the Forest Practices Authority to complete Part B. The cost of engaging an authorised person to complete Part B of the application is to be borne by the Applicant. Please contact Private Forests Tasmania for details of authorised persons.

Also required are –

Persons with legal or equitable interest in the land, or in timber on the land, to which the application relates need to be notified of the application. It is the responsibility of the applicant to notify these persons. Proforma notices are provided with this application.

A FULL copy of the current title, in the name of the applicant, for each area of land covered by this application must accompany this application. A FULL copy includes Folio text, folio plan and where available Property Report.

If only part of a title is to be declared a Private Timber Reserve, this area must be outlined in red on the folio plan. An application can include any combinations of whole title and part titles. Titles need to be adjoining or in close proximity to each other. Please consult Private Forests Tasmania for advice.

An application fee of $553.00 must accompany each application. Cheques should be made payable to Private Forests Tasmania. Alternative payment methods such as EFT and credit card can be made however, prior arrangement is required by contacting PFT on 6777 2720 or emailing diana.hall@pft.tas.gov.au in advance.

Important Note

Declaration of an area of land or forest as a Private Timber Reserve do not remove the requirement for a Forest Practices Plan when undertaking forestry operations.

It should be noted that under Section 18. (2) (b) Forest Practices Act 1985 in the case of a private timber reserve, a forest practices plan must contain specifications in connection with the restocking of the land with trees.

Personal information we collect from you for private timber reserve application processes will be used by Private Forests Tasmania for that purpose and may be used for other purposes permitted by the Forest Practices Act 1985 and associated laws. Your personal information may be disclosed to contractors and agents of Private Forests Tasmania, the Forest Practices Authority, and other public sector bodies or organisations authorised to collect it. This information will be managed in accordance with the Personal Information Protection Act 1994 and may be accessed by you on request to this Authority. You may be charged a fee for this service. Failure to provide this information may result in your application not being processed or records not being properly maintained.
