Please check this box to indicate you have read the Personal Information Protection statement on the reverse of this form and authorise Private Forests Tasmania to retain your personal contact details.

Personal Information Protection

Private Forests Tasmania (PFT) value the privacy of individual personal information. We are committed to protecting the information we collect and use by compliance with the obligations provided under the Personal Information Protection Act 2004 or its successors.

Your information has been collected for the purposes of responding to the matters indicated in this form, including receiving information from PFT in relation to forestry matters.

In order to carry out business and provide services we may require personal information about clients, customers, contractors and third parties and may collect non-personal information where required. We will ensure that your personal information will not be used or disclosed to other companies, institutions and authorities unless required or permitted by law.

We have implemented technology and security policies, rules and measures to protect the personal information under our control from unauthorised access, improper use, unsanctioned alteration, unlawful or accidental destruction and accidental loss.

We will destroy personal information where it is no longer required (except where required to be kept in compliance with the Archives Act 1983). We will take reasonable steps to ensure that personal information is accurate, complete and up to date. You may choose to be removed from all PFT communications at any time.
